

Birth of a Family

A glance into the world of an informed, home birthing family.

What would it be like to give birth naturally, in a completely relaxed atmosphere without unnecessary intervention, surrounded by people we love and choose to be with?

Birth of A Family is a beautiful new film which shows and tells the story of one family's four home births over a twelve year span.

This dynamic new film portrays the strength of child birth from a fathers perspective as well as shows how fluid and empowering birth can be for the birthing woman.

It shows how the entire family embraces the process of birth.

A true love story about a unique and loving family.
